Vineyard: The fruit is sourced from our own De Bortoli vineyards plus one other vineyard of a long standing supplier of high quality Botrytis Semillon to us.

Vinification: A retro Vintage of Noble One. A throwback to the wines of the mid 80s with higher alcohols and slightly less sugar. Wines with incredible depth and energy. A long association with each vineyard gives us the confidence on when to harvest to reach their full potential. We harvest, ferment and mature each vineyard separately in French oak Barriques for 12 months to ensure the nuances of each vineyard flavours are captured. When blended together each parcel of wine plays their role in moulding the Appearance: Brilliant pale gold

Bouquet: Intense nose with spicy cinnamon over yellow peaches and French nougat aromas,

Palate: Palate is rich, powerful and impossibly long with peaches and barley sugar flavours all kept in check by deft acidity.
