Akarua

10 years after the founding of Rimapere in the Marlborough Valley, the country's leading wine region, Edmond de Rothschild Heritage purchased 34.5 of the best hectares in Akarua, a historic and pioneering vineyard in Central Otago. The vast majority of these 34.5 hectares are in Cairnmuir, ideally placed given its reputation as the holy grail of Bannockburn.

Nestled in the foothills of the mountains and amid breathtaking scenery, the land here offers rare balanced conditions which are suited to producing very fine pinot noirs. On gentle north-west facing slopes, the vineyard is exposed to the sun during the hottest hours of the day. The westerly wind that passes through it reduces the risk of plant disease and frost.

Akarua was created in 1996 by Sir Clifford Skeggs, a New Zealand entrepreneur renowned in the fishing and tourism sector, along with his family. Together they turned it into a well-known brand which later became a household name throughout the country. In Māori, the name 'Akarua' means two vines. Pinot noir and chardonnay were the two varieties first planted on the estate. They now represent 78.5 % and 2% of the parcels respectively, and a small amount of pinot gris and riesling completes the offering.

Drawing on the know-how of local teams and on its own international winemaking expertise, Edmond de Rothschild Heritage's ambition is to optimise Akarua's outstanding potential in order to produce the country's finest pinot noir from a single estate, to create elegant wines and exceptional cuvées and to become the New Zealand benchmark in both domestic and international markets.

"Akarua wines show the purity of the fruit and the terroir at its best through gentle handling and absolute attention to detail."

Allan Scott

ALLAN SCOTT – A NAME SYNONYMOUS WITH WINE .

Family roots run deep; nobody has more experience growing grapes in Marlborough than the Allan Scott family. Allan himself planted some of the regions most famous vineyards, including the very first, and has worked every vintage since.

In 1990, Allan Scott Family Winemakers was born & it was a family affair in the truest and most endearing sense of the word, with multi-generations of the Scott family working together to produce the much-loved brands we know today.

In 2021, Allan’s children, Josh Scott & Sara Stocker assumed control of the company and now head up production, management, and development for the future.

WHAT IS A KEYKEG?

- Made of PET plastic with a bladder
- 20L capacity
- Uses bag-in-box technology – wine is vacuum sealed

WHY KEYKEGS?

- Saves 50% on the cost of delivering premium quality wine
- Environmentally friendly – recyclable
- Lower freight charges – no need to return keg
- Lightweight – an empty key keg weighs 1.5kg and is 100% recyclable
- Wine in KeyKeg weighs 25% less than the same volume in steel kegs and 50% less than the same volume in bottles
- Affordable way for customers to enjoy premium wines

PRESSURE REQUIREMENTS

- The maximum dispensing pressure is 3.5 bar or 51 PSI.
- The safety valve on every KeyKeg coupler prevents higher dispensing pressures.
- Transport & Stored - 6 bar at 40 Celsius °C

SHELF LIFE

- Wine stays fresh in an unopened key keg for 2 years on average
- Once open, the wine will keep for 3-4 weeks

KEY KEG FAQ

• How long does wine stay fresh when the KeyKeg is tapped?
 After tapping, wine will stay fresh in a KeyKeg for 3-4 weeks on average. The shelf life of the wine naturally depends on the type of wine, storage conditions and cleanliness of the draft system.

- What does the wine come into contact with?

The wine comes into contact with the innermost layer of the multi-layered, Heat resistant and 100% UV proof inner bag, which consists of a plastic material approved by the European and American food authorities. This plastic is ideally suitable for storing cider, wine and even beer and has proven its benefits in practice.

- How should I clean my dispensing lines as a KeyKeg user?

You can clean the lines the same way you normally would by connecting a KeyKeg cleaning adaptor. Connect the KeyKeg coupler with the adaptor to a cleaning canister or the existing cleaning system. You will find the accessories you need for this in the KeyKeg webshop.

- The wine isn't dispensing what should I do?

Brookfields

Founded in 1937, Brookfields is Hawke's Bay's oldest boutique Winery. Peter Robertson bought Brookfields Vineyards in 1977. Purposely built as a winery, Brookfields is one of the Bay's most visited destinations and a leading light for premium New Zealand wines. Peter has developed the winery over time with modern technology but has retained traditional wine making methods. He creates classic wines with grapes only grown in specific locations and to his strict growing policy - expressing the essence of place.

Cavalier Green Ginger Wine

Cavalier Green Ginger Wine is a classic green ginger wine, produced by Josh Scott (of Allan Scott Family Winemakers fame) using premium Marlborough grapes co-fermented with zesty natural ginger.

Brewed in Marlborough, the result is a truly delicious beverage - perfect neat, over ice, or add your favourite mixer or spirit. And of course.....it is the essential component of the beloved "Whisky Mac"- a mix of Green Ginger Wine and a good blended whisky.

Cavalier Green Ginger Wine is forging a new path, making wine of a different kind.

Devil's Staircase

The Devil's Staircase takes the willing down into the realm of decadence and bacchanalian delights. Here everything is pleasure, spiced up with a dash of naughtiness. The unrelenting environment tortures the vines whose twisted limbs produce wine worthy of absolution. These wines are sinfully succulent and devilishly good.

The Devil's Staircase name is inspired by the winding road resembling a devilish descent leading from Queenstown to Kingston, along the shores of Lake Wakatipu. Produced by Rockburn and winemaker Malcolm Rees-Francis, this range will offer you and your customers affordability without compromising on quality.

Duck Hunter

Few things in life are more enjoyable than good conversation over fine wine. At such moments, the mind runs free, ideas flow and friendships strengthen. Wherever you are, the world becomes a little smaller. At Duck Hunter Wines, such moments are our greatest inspiration. Our aim is to create and share fine wines that warm the moment.

With remarkable speed, the Duck Hunter has grown in personality and charm. With a gun slung casually over wing, our feathered friend is not the hunted; rather the hunter – the keeper of the estate, protector of the vines and calm champion of the wines. If beaks could talk, he'd surely have a good story to share. And so, with every bottle, we see the Duck Hunter as a salute to friendship and conversation.

We also assure you that no ducks were harmed in the making of our wines.

Dusky Sounds

Evolving in isolation over 80 million years ago, New Zealand has its own special natural environment, its native flora and fauna are truly unique in this world. New Zealand’s isolated soils, pure waters and cool maritime winds add the finishing touches to produce Dusky Sounds premium, great value wines. Strong varietal characters and lifted, pungent aromatics along with clean and inviting flavours. Dusky Sounds epitomises New Zealand’s unique personality.

Eon

Eon of Bendigo is a premium Pinot Noir brand born out of an incredible passion and patience to produce the finest Pinot Noir. Eon is a genuine, innovative and contemporary brand which has been created from the stunning region of Bendigo, Central Otago. Eon pride themselves on taking the time to do things right, their identity is bold, using a notable and distinctive die cut design, the hourglass. They know that pursuing perfection takes care and patience, and that is exactly what they have put into their wine.

WINEGROWERS.

Eskdale

Tucked away in Napier's Esk Valley, is an old timber winery with stained glass windows and arched doorways. This tiny, picturesque winery belongs to Kim Salonius, a graduate in Medieval History.

In good years Eskdale produces three wine varietals, Chardonnay, Gewurztraminer and a Malbec. All of which are bold fruit-driven styles which receive more maturation than most in 500 litre barrels. The wine is bottled no sooner than two to three years after harvest.

These truly hand-made wines are of exceptional quality and individuality.

Grower's Mark

Every great wine is made in the vineyard and at Grower's Mark, we champion our grape growers and wine farmers. Every farmer has a 'reserve block' or a few rows he keeps for himself, be it bird, beast or vegetable. This is the idea behind Grower's Mark, the wines are the proprietor's reserve of the Farmers Market Wine Company. The Rose - Our Growers Mark of Quality & Sustainability. They also represent our move to sustainable winegrowing where our New Zealand Grape Growers must adhere to practices that are economically viable, socially responsible and environmentally sound.

Jackson Estate

Since planting their pioneering vineyards, over three decades ago, time, tide and fortune have been kind to Jackson Estate and the unparalleled affinity between Marlborough and fine wine has been spectacularly realised.

Jackson Estate believes in a few very simple principles - the best modern winemaking techniques; a respect for vineyard sites; unerring pursuit of varietal integrity; and through this, a strong, identifiable and much admired style.

Winemaker

Matt Patterson-Green

Jules Taylor

Jules is the eponymous winemaker, Marlborough’s “Queen of Sauvignon Blanc” and a godmother to several hundred thousand little grapes.

Born and bred Marlburian, Jules has seen the transformation that the wine industry brought to the region. With this life long association, she brings to her winemaking an intimate understanding of the interplay between the grape and Marlborough’s variety of climates and soils.

Her label, Jules Taylor Wines, was born in 2001 with a clear vision to create high quality wines which speak of their place. More than a decade later, this vision still lies at the very forefront of Jules winemaking efforts.

Lake Chalice

Lake Chalice Wines is one of the few remaining privately and locally owned wine companies in New Zealand and is located in the country’s main wine-growing region, Marlborough

Established in 1989, Lake Chalice is named after the wilderness lake in the Richmond range bordering the north of the Wairau Plain The Lake Chalice emblem is the stunning New Zealand Falcon (Karearea) and they are proud sponsors of the Wingspan Trust preserving NZ’s birds of prey, and also active in the Falcons for Grapes project in Marlborough attempting to re-introduce Falcons to the Wairau Valley.

A Marlborough success story - great wines, a tonne of awards, 100% NZ family owned.

Loveblock

Perched high on the hills overlooking Marlborough’s Awatere Valley, our Loveblock is far removed from the agricultural bustle in the valley below. From here you can almost see the end of the planet; the peace lifts you above your troubles.

At Loveblock, Kim and Erica are charged with creating the best wine they can to express this extraordinary place and its unique aspect. By following their deeply held belief in ethical farming they enable the wine to show its true and naked terroir. Loveblock is Erica and Kims heart and soul.

They farm the land and grow grapes in accordance with Organic Certification standards, Sustainable Winegrowing New Zealand principles and low chemical intervention farming.

Matawhero

Established in 1968 by Bill Irwin, Matawhero Wines defied convention and made wines of boutique standing and international acclaim and, in doing so, changed the face of New Zealand winemaking forever.

Since its first vintage in 1975, Matawhero has produced many excellent and often adventurous wines. Today, revived by the Searle family, Matawhero is true to the founders' determination, producing individualistic wines of world class standard.

Naturally dry-farmed for more intense grape flavours in their wines. They rely on natural rainfall to grow their grapes. The vines entrench themselves deeply in the fertile soils and are exposed the true terroir of the land.

Mud House

Mud House's founders set sail to travel the world; only to fall in love with New Zealand. After planting vines they used the local earth to build their home. Two decades on, Mud House continue to celebrate the spirit of striking out and breaking boundaries by producing consistently beautiful wines for people who seek new experiences, embrace fresh ideas and share their taste for adventure.

Mud House vineyards are nurtured to ensure that their grapes reach optimum ripeness, varietal character and flavour. Their winemakers then finely craft the wine to capture the essence of its origin.

Nga Waka

Nga Waka was established in 1988. The name is taken from Nga Waka A Kupe (The Canoes of Kupe), the three hills, which lie like upturned canoes, forming a backdrop for the town of Martinborough.

Producing food-friendly wines that are built to last, emphasizing structure, texture and balance. Nga Waka wines are bone dry and derive richness and concentration from low crops and optimal sunlight interception by the leaves and grapes. The vineyards are all accredited to Sustainable Winegrowing NZ.

Rimu Grove

Winemaker Patrick Stowe purchased the property on the scenic Bronte Peninsula in 1995 after searching New Zealand for the perfect location to establish his vineyard. The search for the ultimate expression of terroir is reflected in these wines; a synergy of Nelson sunshine, Moutere clay gravels, a maritime microclimate and the pursuit of perfection.

Meticulous management in the low-cropped vineyard produces concentrated grapes with a fine balance of varietal fruit flavours, textures and aromas. The fruit is handled carefully in the winery to retain those delicate characteristics. Every effort is made to produce the finest wine. Taste the terroir talking.

Rockburn

Rockburn takes its name from the rugged, rock-strewn, burn-scarred landscape of Central Otago, with its stunning scenery of rugged mountains and picturesque lakes. Here, the region shares a climate similar to that of Burgundy, the great Pinot Noir producing region of the world. Taking advantage of these climatic conditions and the distinct appellations that have emerged in the area, Rockburn has two vineyard sites - Gibbston Valley and Parkburn, north of Cromwell. Grapes are all handpicked from these two sites and exhibit strong varietal characteristics. Rockburn's outstanding record is not only confined to their headlining Pinot Noir, but extends throughout the entire portfolio, including a range of white varieties with underlying crisp acidity that is typical of the region.

RUA

Rua

Central Otago, as a viticultural region, arguably more than any other New Zealand wine growing region, has rapidly gained international market and media credibility for producing some of the world’s best Pinot Noir.

Situated at 45 degrees south, we are at a magical latitude for Pinot Noir. Our vines thrive in this environment, which is situated within a dramatic mountainous, snow-capped terrain, next to winding turquoise rivers and glacial lakes. As New Zealand’s only continental climate, the intense sunlight and long summer days deliver us optimally ripe fruit and luscious, vibrant wines.

The name represents the first two varieties planted in our original vineyard in Central Otago – Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Our much-loved RUA Pinot Noir has won 5 Trophies and 15 Gold Medals and is fondly referred to as our “go to Pinot Noir”.

“RUA wines are a celebration for every day.”

Saving Grace

This is a story about a place like no other. On the edge of the world, watched by the Three Deans range to the West and sheltered from the stiff sea wind by the Teviotdale hills, our place is in the heart of the North Canterbury wine region.

Saving Grace Wines pay homage to the people and the North Canterbury region. A tricky area to grow grapes, it requires resilience and a love of place. The Nor'wester is both fierce and benevolent, a friend and foe. The vines grow in the soil and keep us grounded. The hills shield and embrace. Hands tend the vines and pour a glass of wine to welcome you.

Scott Base

The Scott family, owners of Allan Scott Family Winemakers, have long had an affinity with Central Otago. The Scott Base Vineyard was established in 1994 and is situated in the heart of Central Otago on terraces overlooking the town of Cromwell and Lake Dunstan. Until now, the Scott Base collection of wines has been a classic “best kept secret”. In their Kiwi way, the Scott Family stands quietly proud of what a great wine it is. In ensuring there was no confusion between Scott Base in Antarctica and Scott Base vineyard, the Scott family formed a relationship with the Antarctic Heritage Trust which is entrusted to preserve the buildings and heritage status of Antarctica. The family in turn donate a percentage of sales of Scott Base wines to the trust and provide wines to events and ongoing activities.

Torea

The Torea (Oystercatcher) bird, our namesake, thrive around New Zealand’s beautiful coastline and like most of NZ’s inhabitants they love the beach environment, where fresh seafood is always on the menu. It is no coincidence that Torea’s wine styles take their cues from our pristine ‘flora and fauna’ and are also shaped by our unique maritime climate into an offering that is a perfect match for any classic Kiwi seafood dish.

Grapes are sourced from the best regions throughout the land, with the simple goal of capturing the essence of these varietals and showcasing why New Zealand wine is acclaimed around the world. The Torea wine range always over delivers with exceptional quality, bright fruit forward flavours and food friendly wine styles. Torea Wine is proudly family owned and operated.

Trinity Hill

In 1993, having recognised the outstanding potential of the Hawkes Bays Gimblett Gravels winegrowing district, Trinity Hill became one of the regions early pioneers, planting grapevines on a barren plot which continues to produce exceptional wines today.

Trinity Hill have superb vineyard sites and the winemaking skills to ensure that they can achieve their aims of crafting some of the worlds great wines.

A philosophy of Quality rather than Quantity is important. Controlled yields ensure the intensity of flavour and elegant styles for which Trinity Hill is renowned.

The highly experienced winemakers, viticulturists and cellar team all combine their expertise to ensure the best possible wine is made year by year.

Waipara Hills

Established in 2001, Waipara Hills is an award winning wine range from the South Island of New Zealand. It's the extreme natural environments of the mountains, hills and valleys of the South Island that gives the wines of Waipara Hills its intensity, character and complexity.

At Waipara Hills the philosophy is simple. It's about allowing the characteristics of each season's fruit to shine, then creating perfect balance with as little interference as possible. The result is wine that is rich, vibrant and bursting with complex flavours.

Zephyr

When it comes to professional wine people, Ben Glover is about as top-of-the-tree as it gets, in this country anyway. He has ‘Chief Winemaker’ and ‘Director of Winemaking’ titles from internationally acclaimed brands such as Wither Hills, Lindauer, Huntaway and Corbans on his resumé, and was most recently Group Winemaker for Accolade New Zealand, sourcing fruit from Hawke’s Bay, Waipara Valley, Marlborough and Central Otago for brands such as Mud House.

Arras

The House of Arras is a true expression of its origin and maker – a marriage of exceptional cold climate Tasmanian vineyards and uncompromising sparkling winemaking techniques mastered over decades.

The art of blending sparkling wine is one that can only be mastered with years of experience. Many individual parcels are woven together to create the final blend, each bringing its own profound character to the complete wine.

The Arras Brut Elite is the fulfilment of a vision to craft world class sparkling wine.

Banrock Station

Located in South Australia, on the banks of the River Murray, Banrock Station wines have been produced and sold globally since 1996. Purchased in 1995 in a joint partnership with Landcare, the main purpose was to restore 2,500 acres of wetlands.

Committed to the conservation of the environment, Banrock Station has re-invested more than AU$6 million to more than 130 projects globally. For the past 4 years, they have been funding research, to help WWF protect turtles in the iconic Great Barrier Reef.

Banrock Station's passion for conservation is only matched by their passion to produce fine wine. Embracing well-loved traditional styles and innovations, the range offers bold, flavoursome, easy drinking wines, produced from excellent fruit.

Chapel Hill

Chapel Hill Winery in McLaren Vale was built on the site of the Seaview Methodist chapel and school house. The 1865 ironstone chapel still stands today and is an integral feature of the popular tasting room.

The winery founder, Thomas Nelson, hand planted the vineyard on the estate starting in 1973. Perched on the edge of the spectacular Onkaparinga Gorge at the northern end of McLaren Vale, shallow rocky soils are a feature of the site with some of the geology formations dating back 600 million years.

Cookoothama

Cookoothama is made from estate-grown fruit from the family’s vineyards in the King Valley and Darlington Point. Cookoothama ‘cooka-a-tharma’ is the name of the family’s vineyard at Darlington Point on the Murrumbidgee River and is the Aboriginal word meaning ‘fertile land’.

The two hands on the label represent the people who have lived and cultivated the land spread along the banks of the Murrumbidgee River transforming it into the prosperous land it is today with some of the geology formations dating back 600 million years.

Gemtree

Gemtree Wines

At Gemtree we have been gifted the opportunity to work a unique patch of the earth in South Australia's McLaren Vale. By respecting and nurturing this land we harvest high quality, flavourful grapes each and every vintage from vineyards farmed with care.

More than 40km south of Adelaide by the old road, McLaren Vale has attracted winemakers, vigneron and visionaries for more than 180 years. Already a major wine region in the 1880s it was a century later that Paul and Jill Buttery purchased a plot of land named Gemtree off the narrow gum-lined track that is Elliot Road.

“Biodynamics is not magic, but since we have changed the way we farm it has produced some magical results.”

Grant Burge

Grant Burge Wines was established in 1988 and is located in the heart of the Barossa Valley. Our wines are renowned all over the world for their consistent quality and integrity, allowing the terroir of the hallowed Barossa Valley to speak for itself through minimal intervention winemaking practices and careful vineyard management.

The Grant Burge team is dedicated to the Barossa region, and believes fine wines are born in the vineyard. We source fruit from vineyards planted throughout the Barossa, and each planting features individual microclimates and characters, with grape varieties matched to the vineyards, ensuring harvests are of the highest quality. Grant Burge Wines has been rated a 5 Red Star Winery 11 years in a row by James Halliday Australian Wine Companion.

Hewitson

Dean Hewitson captures the essence of history and the magic of old vines and bottles it. Dean's passion for wine is undeniable and his desire to share this passion is even greater. This led him to a life in which he creates wine purely for the enjoyment of others.

Each variety has been selected on the basis of being able to produce a world class wine from the old vineyards of South Australia. Geographical isolation and, in part, a fluke of human non-intervention have preserved pre-phylloxera vineyards that are more closely linked to the original clones from Europe than anywhere on earth.

Kaesler

Established in 1893, Kaesler boasts historic vines which produce intense fruit. When current winemaker Reid Bosward and a team of investors began winemaking on the property in the 1990's Kaesler's sole purpose was to produce excellent wine. This much is true, Kaesler's fruit is powerful yet exquisite.

Quality is paramount - and this small winery boasts:
"One of the most exciting wine portfolio's in South Australia. The result is exuberant, full-throttle, classic wines."
- Robert Parker.

Katnook Estate

Katnook Estate is one of the most esteemed domains in Australia's premier red wine district, Coonawarra. It's vineyards are planted in prime Terra Rossa soil, spanning 330 hectares in the heart of this remote region of South Australia. From here come red wines that have contributed to Coonawarra's international reputation.

Chief Winemaker, Wayne Stehbens, has been with Katnook since its first vintage in 1980, making him one of Australia's longest serving winemakers. During this time Wayne has been honoured with two Jimmy Watson Trophies which articulate Katnook Estate's status.

VINE TALK

Under the old vine charter, vines are grouped into four categories by age: (in ascendant order) old; survivor; centenarian and ancestor.

OLD VINES

At 35 years old, these old vines have grown beyond adolescence, and are now fully mature. They have a root structure and trunk thickness that encourages diversity of flavour and character.

CENTENARIAN VINES

These exceptionally old vines serve as a witness to barossa's resilience in the face of adversity. Noted for their low yields and intensity of flavour. Planted generations ago when dry-farming techniques demanded careful site selection. Centenarian vines have truly withstood the test of time.

SURVIVOR VINES

These vines have weathered the worst of many storms, both man-made and naturally occurring, including the infamous 1980's vine pull scheme. A barossa survivor vine has reached a significant milestone, and pays homage to the resolute commitment of those growers and winemakers who value the quality and structure of old vine wines.

ANCESTOR VINES

An ancestor vine has stood strong for at least 125 years – a living tribute to the early European settlers of barossa. Their genetic material has helped to populate the region with irreplaceable old stocks that underpin the viticultural tradition. Ancestor vines are dry-grown, low-yielding vines of great flavour and intensity, and are believed to be among the oldest producing vines in the world.

MR.MICK

Mr Mick

Named after K.H (Mr Mick) Knappstein, a legend within the Australian winemaking industry, Mr Mick's is a meeting place for locals and visitors alike.

One of Mr Mick's passions in life was to make wines for everyone to enjoy, a tradition his last apprentice, local winemaker Tim Adams, continues in his name. Today Tim and wife Pam are proud custodians of this landmark property and in 1987 Mr Mick received an Order of Australia for services to the wine industry.

St Hallett

Established in 1944 by the Linder Family, St Hallett represents the very spirit and soul of winemaking in the Barossa. More than 70 years on from these humble beginnings, St Hallett has established a reputation for making wines with exceptional quality and character. From the beginning, St Hallett understood the importance of saving old vines and focusing on varieties that thrive in the Barossa region – particularly Shiraz.

Over the years, St Hallett has built up a deep understanding of the rich tapestry of vineyard sites and climates in the Barossa, and with this, an appreciation for and understanding of local growers and the finest vines and highest-quality parcels of fruit the Barossa can offer.

The Hidden Sea

26 Million Years ago South Australia’s incredible Limestone coast was submerged by a vast ocean and was home to a thriving marine ecosystem. A series of dramatic ice ages caused the ocean to recede, leaving the area rich with deep limestone deposits containing majestic marine fossils... including the fossilized remains of an ancient whale, which rests under one of The Hidden Sea’s vineyards.

The Hidden Sea Promise: For every bottle of The Hidden Sea sold, we remove & recycle 10 plastic bottles from the ocean. The goal? To remove and recycle 1 BILLION plastic bottles from the ocean by 2030. The Hidden Sea has removed over 19 Million plastic bottles from the ocean since July 2020.

Tim Adams

Tim Adams Wines was originally born of a partnership between Tim and Pam and local coopers, Bill and Jill Wray, in 1984. Then, in 1987 the partnership dissolved to create Tim Adams Wines. The Cellar door was opened and the first grapes crushed on site the following year. The decades that followed brought with them a natural evolution of the company, the physical site and the wines themselves.

These years of hard work, passion and curiosity have resulted in a progressive family winery that is committed to creating elegant wines, without forgetting its obligation to the Australian wine industry, environment and wider community.

Torbreck

The Barossa, thanks to its freedom from Phylloxera, is home to some of the oldest, dry grown vines in the world. By identifying some of these pockets of low-yielding “gold” and securing the harvest from them through share farming, resulting in the very best fruit for Torbreck wines.

A love of Rhone Valley wines from France has led Torbreck to base its focus around the classic varietals; Shiraz, Grenache and Mataro (Mourvedre), which are suited to of both the Barossa Valley and the Rhone Valley. At Torbreck we love the intense, rich, Rhone-like flavours that come from old Barossa vines, particularly Shiraz and Grenache.

In the beginning of the 19th century - Armand de Chambray, Merchant by nature, settled his wine merchant house in the heart of Burgundy. Right from the start, the established company exported to a number of countries in northern Europe and Southeast Asia.

Passionate, Armand de Chambray set off for a greater conquest of Europe. His ambition and fine reputation led him to the most prestigious Royal courts of his time, that is to say England, Poland, Scandinavia and Russia.

Today, it is in the memory of Armand de Chambray that the Compagnie Vinicole de Bourgogne proudly produces this fine sparkling wine that holds his name.

Arrogant Frog

Arrogant Frog was born in the Herault Valley in Languedoc in the south of France, near the Mediterranean sea, close to the small town of Pezenas. Jean-Claude Mas combines French tradition with a new world approach to innovation and winemaking.

Three words sum up these wines: fruit, fruit, fruit. The wines are smooth, rich and packed with flavour, but not sweet. They are a French response to the challenge of the New World, proof that the French can make wines to match and even better those produced in other countries, with a marketing savvy to boot. The goal of The Arrogant Frog has always been to be the symbol and the signature for original, creative and enjoyable wines. Château Arrogant Frog is made up of 20 hectares in Grand Cru Limoux (15 organically farmed and 5 certified sustainable). Vegan Friendly.

BIJOU

Bijou

Le Bijou de Sophie Valrose is named after a lady who worked in the Languedoc vineyards during the late 19th century and became something of a local hero. At the time, it was largely women who worked in the vineyards; pruning and harvesting the vines. Sadly these women were often mistreated, over-worked and under-paid. Sophie fought for women's rights and drastically improved working conditions for her fellow women in the vineyard in which she worked. Bijou is a tribute to her memory and we share her story on the back of every bottle sold. Our rosé is made from grapes sourced from handpicked bush vines, alike those that Sophie would've harvested herself many years ago.

Charles Heidsieck

Charles Heidsieck is the quintessential champagne for the modern gentleman, stating sophisticated harmony, richness and depth of character

Founded by a daring, cosmopolitan, 19th-century gentleman, Charles-Camille Heidsieck was the first to journey to America to showcase Champagne, thus quickly becoming notorious as “Champagne-Charlie” by the Yanks after his famous trip in 1857. Charles Heidsieck is the only Champagne House to declare both the cellaring date and disgorgement date on the label, so each bottle is unique. Using 40% reserve wine in the blend – the maximum amount, and way more than the average – Charles Heidsieck’s blend tastes richer, offering more dry fruits and toasted flavours. Undergoing a minimum of 36-months ageing (the law requires 15), all champagne bottles slowly mature sur lie in 20m-deep, 2,000 year-old original Gallo-Roman chalk cellars, thus offering unparalleled maturation at constant 10C.

Today the House’s wines are awarded the greatest prizes by professional juries across the world. Over the past ten years, the House received more than 180 gold medals and some 32 Trophies.

Drappier

Considered one of the finest boutique champagne producers in the world.

Drappier is all about natural authenticity. It aspires to that ideal by using the lowest sulphur content of any champagne and low-dosage (7 g/L against the market average of 10 g/L), thus providing a dry, aromatic, elegant expression. Drappier is also very terroir-focused through organic and traditional winemaking practices.

Founded in 1808, there is no shortage of history. Monsieur Drappier owns vaulted cellars that are among the oldest and most extensive in Europe, tracing back to 1152. Some of his cellars were one of the few that survived both world wars and the fire that swept through the area in the 18th century. The pride of the house, the limestone rich vineyards themselves, were initially established by the Romans 2,000 years ago.

Drappier is Pinot-centric and that defines the style of the House. 75% of the NV's blend is made of Pinot Noir, 15% Chardonnay and only 10% Pinot Meunier (almost a Blanc de Noirs!). 5% of the wines are matured in barrels. That means that Drappier delivers a more structured, fleshy, toasty champagne, ideal to match with a wider spectrum of food, i.e. Drappier is definitely not your citrusy aperitif champagne! Drappier's Prestige Cuvée Grande Sendrée is known as the most exciting champagne from the Côte des Bars region. That may explain why Drappier was the favourite of President Charles de Gaulle, the iconic French liberator, as well as receiving a solid local following in the New Zealand over many years.

Edmond De Rothschild Heritage

The founding father of the Rothschilds was Mayer Amschel Rothschild, born in the early 18th century in the Frankfurt ghetto.

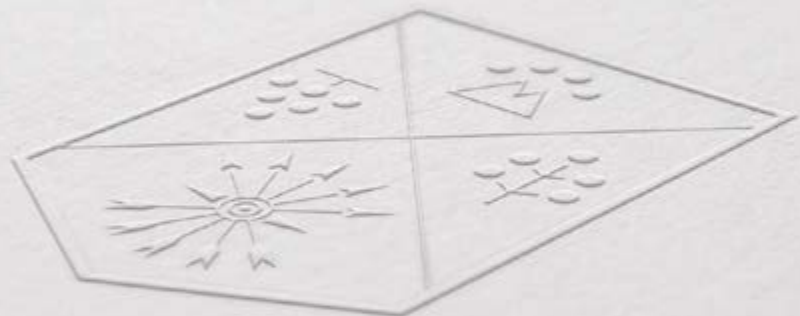

Fifty years later, through his verve and vigour, he had become the banker to the Crown Prince and several sovereigns. He sent his five sons out to conquer the world, from Naples and Vienna to Paris and London. The Rothschilds were an integral part of the ferment and tumult of the 19th century. In industry, railways and raw materials, the Rothschild family financed entrepreneurs, charted new territories and embraced the changing world.

Some 250 years later, the new generation is supporting those seeking to change the world for the better and to set their sights higher. In banking, philanthropy, medical research, art, wine-growing, social entrepreneurship and yacht-racing, the commitment of the Rothschild family is a mark of excellence and progress. The energy of the founding father is as strong and positive as ever.

The 5 arrows of the Rothschild family emblem symbolise the 5 brothers who were at the origin of this entrepreneurial dynasty: the 5 sons of Mayer Amschel Rothschild.

In the heart of the Southern Rhône Valley, in Gigondas, that Gabriel Meffre Winery established its roots. At the foot of the majestic Dentelles de Montmirail mountains and not far from the Mont Ventoux, or Giant of Provence, lie the exceptional crus of our region. Almost 80 years later, the family business has built on its strong foundations and has established its reputation as a leading Winery in the southern Rhone Valley, with the complementary know-how linked to being both 'Négociant-Eleveur' and Producer, recognised for the quality of its wines.

DUBOEUF

Georges Duboeuf

The undisputed 'King of Beaujolais' is Georges Duboeuf, who started by roaming the region in his VW back in the sixties, making wine wherever he stopped. Today the company now produces upwards of 3 million cases a year, making it one of France's largest and best-known wine merchants.

An innovator in the way Beaujolais was made, Georges Duboeuf also took the concept of Beaujolais Nouveau to new heights. It is now one of the wine world's most famous events and accounts for 1/5th of his annual production (approximately 4 million bottles of Beaujolais Nouveau alone). It centres around the concept of being the first wine of the vintage, with much fanfare made of the wine's release on the third Thursday in November.

Gisselbrecht

Alsatian Pinot Gris is an entirely different breed to the New Zealand versions of the pink-skinned grape that have captured so much attention in the past few years. While some of our local offerings can perhaps hint at the delights on offer from Alsace, the home of the grape, it is producers like Willy Gisselbrecht who know how to deliver the complexity and astounding richness that the grape can attain. He has a bit of an advantage; his family have made wine in Alsace since the 1600s: they know their 17 hectares intimately.

Great Alsatian aromatics, like the wines Gisselbrecht produce tend to be thickly textured expressions of their respective grape varieties. A thrilling meeting of honeyed richness and flinty minerality, a result of the unique terroir and the attention to detail that only centuries of tradition can deliver.

Pascal Jolivet

The energetic and enthusiastic Pascal Jolivet is one of a new breed of winemakers in the Loire Valley. While Pascal is a great respecter of tradition and values the minerally-scented wines that the region has produced for decades, he is also aware of the massive impact New World Sauvignon Blanc has had on the world stage.

Aiming to make French Sauvignon - Pouilly-Fume and Sancerre - sexy again, Pascal targeted the great restaurants of France, showing how brilliantly his wines pair with food, and gaining a reputation amongst the Michelin-starred dining rooms for his powerful, yet elegantly, styled Sauvignon.

While the accompanying finesse, balance and ‘gun-flint’ hints in his wine are all hallmark of the great Loire Valley, take note that this is a man who calls one of his wines ‘Attitude’: he’s made a huge impact, and he intends to keep it that way.

MOUTON CADET
BARON PHILIPPE DE ROTHSCHILD

Mouton Cadet

Created in 1930, Mouton Cadet is the result of a history between Bordeaux wines and Baron Philippe de Rothschild. The youngest of the family and the owner of Château Mouton Rothschild, he was keen to bring the richness of the prestigious Bordeaux region to a wider audience.

All the know-how of Mouton Cadet serves a single purpose: sharing the “emotion of wine-drinking” with customers all over the world. Its unique style, constant and evolving from one vintage to another, is the result of a precise blend of the different grape varieties used to make the wine.

Mouton Cadet’s ambition is to guarantee consumers the best possible quality from grape to glass while preserving the Bordeaux terroir and respecting people.

Piper-Heidsieck

It's no coincidence: behind Piper-Heidsieck's mythic red label lies the sparkle of its golden wines, so seductive and continuously acclaimed.

Inspired by an ambitious vision in 1785, Florens-Louis Heidsieck crafted the 1st cuvée of Piper-Heidsieck, one of France's oldest Champagne houses. Presented to Queen Marie-Antoinette and consumed at the Court of Versailles, the elegance and boldness of Piper-Heidsieck led fourteen Royal Courts to choose it as their official Champagne supplier.

With a grand history, Piper-Heidsieck has been synonymous with excellence, boldness, and grandeur for over 230 years. One of the world's most awarded Champagnes, Piper-Heidsieck benefits from the expertise of celebrated winemaker, Régis Camus, the most awarded Sparkling Winemaker of the Year of the century.

Ahead of its time, without ever betraying the original passion and high standards of its founder, the House expanded its reach well beyond its borders and its name became synonymous with some of the brightest stars. As the official Champagne of the Oscars and of the Cannes Film Festival, Piper-Heidsieck is also known as The Champagne of the Red Carpet for its rich history of artistic collaboration and endorsement. Piper-Heidsieck's Prestige Cuvée (Rare 2002) was acclaimed as the Champagne of the Decade, surpassing the quality of Dom Pérignon, Veuve Clicquot's Grand Dame and Cristal.

Rare Champagne

Champagne expresses a revolutionary spirit, fighting against the trivialisation of vintages. As a noble tribute to Marie-Antoinette, its aristocratic origin, its refined style and its freedom are enjoyable by everyone. Each Rare Millesime is born from the struggle with nature. For instance, Rare Millesime 1976 was created after an exceptional drought, Rare Millesime 1985 following a terrible black frost. As the guardian of the Rare Champagne style, Régis Camus, selects the vineyards according to their expression rather than their rank in the scale of Premiers and Grand Crus. This uncommon blending approach contributes to the complex, distinguished, and yet pure style of Rare Champagne.

Like his predecessors, Régis Camus the most awarded Cellar Master of the century*, succeeds in transforming Rare Champagne into a wine of patience with an unlimited potential for expression. Time is no longer an obstacle but a benefit which emphasizes the personality of each vintage.

Blossoming year after year, Rare Champagne expresses an elegant style: endless freshness, long-lasting minerality, with a radiant purity and subtle contrasts.

Pol Roger

Pol Roger: Elegant and refined, long, searching, deliciously tense, Pol Roger is the champagne for all occasions.

Few great family-owned Champagne Houses remain in family hands. The impressively-pedigreed Pol Roger is one of them. In its 160 years of history, Pol Roger has carved out one of the most flattering reputation in the select circle of leading Champagne brands. Pol Roger achieves consistent excellence.

The English obviously love them, with Pol Roger being 1 of only 8 Champagnes bearing the prestigious Royal Warrant. Pol Roger is regularly served in royal weddings and coronations, recently gaining what many would regard as the ultimate royal approval - providing the wedding champagne for the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. The late Winston Churchill also clutched Pol to his steely heart as a personal favourite – Churchill was legendary for drinking one pint of Pol Roger every day between 1908 until his last days in 1965.

A Pinot-loving house, Pol Roger's style is based on purity, precision and crisp, neatly inked draughtsmanship. Its silky texture is unmatched due to the finesse of its beads, a result from slow maturation in its deep, cool, 7km-labyrinth of chalk cellars in Epernay. It is one of the few Champagnes still riddled by hand in order to ensure maximum quality.

WINES

Chiarli

Founded in 1860 By Cleto Chiarli, the winery is the oldest producer of Lambrusco, as well as other wine, in Emilia. The meticulous care and principle of honesty, plus the highest regard for quality, has been handed down by Chiarli through the generations.

After many years of success, Mauro and Anselmo decided in 2002 to start a very ambitious project: the building of a brand-new winery, which would have a new state-of-the-art production line, fitted with the latest technology, thus enabling them to process the grapes grown in the Chiarli estates in order to produce Lambrusco of the highest quality. Lambrusco has ancient origins, right back to the Roman times and has a natural fizziness which complements a variety of modern dishes.

The Freixenet family's history goes back to 1861, when Francesco Sala Ferrés started a business making and exporting wine to America. With the marriage of Pedro Ferrer and Dolores Sala Vivé two empires have been unified. Dolores' knowledge of wine making combined with Pedro's vision and entrepreneurship created the core foundations of Freixenet today.

The young couple chose a familiar name close to home. Pedro had grown up in a vineyard called "La Freixeneda", which means "ash tree grove" in Catalan and as a result, his nickname was "el Freixenet."

Harveys

NO.1 GLOBAL SHERRY BRAND. Harvey's was founded in 1796 in Bristol. At that time, sherry was transported by ship in oak casks and then blended in Bristol. Harvey's Bristol Cream was created in the company's cellars in the 1882 by John Harvey II and his brother Edward. An aristocratic lady who was visiting the cellars was sampling Harvey's Bristol Milk. She was asked to try the new, finer and richer blend. 'If that is Milk, then this must be Cream' She declared on tasting the new blend, and Bristol Cream it has been ever since. From 1970 onwards, Harvey's began investing heavily in the region of Jerez, purchasing top quality vineyards and bodegas and built a bottling plant. All production and distribution of sherry for world markets is now centred in Jerez. Only wine produced in the area of Jerez, southern Spain can be called sherry.

High quality, and more affordable than Champagne, Freixenet is produced in the same painstaking manner. Just like Champagne, all the grapes are handpicked and gently pressed to produce a high quality, delicious sparkling wine.

Chile

Chilean wine culture dates back to the 16th century when Spanish colonisers arrived. Since then Chilean wine has flourished, especially in recent years where number of vineyards increased from 12 to 70, from 1995 - 2005. Chile is known for many varietals such as Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Carmenere.

Argentina

Until the early 1990s Argentine wine was produced with the motto of quantity not quality. Although they were producing the most wine out of any other country outside of Europe, most of it was unexportable. Argentine winemakers finally realised that wine could help boost their economy. Argentina is now the biggest exporter of wine as it increases in quality and popularity.

Chakana

The Pelizzatti family founded Chakana in May 2002 reviving an old family legacy. As the descendants of Giovanni Pelizzatti, an early 19th century pioneer winemaker in Mendoza Argentina. Chakana is a winery dedicated to the study and understanding of some of the best terroirs of Mendoza, Argentina.

Chakana develops the concept of estate wines, making them in the same place where the grapes are grown. This complete integration between agricultural and oenological practices, results in superior expression of fruit driven and balanced wines. Its goal is to produce authentic wines to express the character and identity of the Andean soils.

Fonseca

From the legendary 1840, Fonseca's first Vintage Port release, to the superb declared vintages of the last decade, the house has produced a succession of highly acclaimed wines even in the most adverse moments of history.

James Suckling, in his authoritative book on Vintage Port, put it as follows: 'The vintage Ports of Fonseca are perhaps the most consistently great of them all. Not only do they have a striking fleshiness and powerful richness when young, but they retain that youthfulness for decades.'

This consistency derives not only from continuity of family involvement, and the knowledge and skill passed down from one generation to the next, but also a close link with the vineyard. The firm's three estates of Cruzeiro, Panascal and Santo António are the heart of the distinctive character of Fonseca's Vintage Ports.

QUINTA
DE LA ROSA

Quinta De La Rosa

In the world of large-scale, internationally-owned port organisations, it is a treasure to come across a tiny, family-owned bodega that can compete with the giants of the industry. The current owner of Quinta de la Rosa, Tim Bergvist, continues to steer this small yet highly acclaimed operation to great heights through his strict control of everything from growing to bottling.

Tim has a fierce tradition to protect: his mother was gifted the vineyards that the company still use today as a Christening present in 1906. Through a combination of perfect vineyard sites, high above the Douro river, a winemaking philosophy that puts quality above everything else, and a business sense that matches the mojos with their giant operations,

Quinta de la Rosa have proved that small can be beautiful and that individual, characterful Ports are still being produced in Portugal. You just have to know where to look.

Taylor's

For many, Taylor's is the archetypal Port house and its wines the quintessential Ports. Established over three centuries ago in 1692, Taylor's is one of the oldest of the founding Port houses. It is dedicated entirely to the production of Port wine and in particular to its finest styles.

Above all, Taylor's is regarded as the benchmark for Vintage Port. Noted for their elegance and poise as well as for their restrained power and longevity, Taylor's Vintage Ports are blended from the finest wines of the firm's own quintas or estates, Vargellas, Terra Feita and Junco. These three iconic properties, each occupying a distinct geographic location and with their own unique character, are the cornerstone of the company's success and the main source of its unique and inimitable house style.

Japan

Sake is a Japanese rice wine made by fermenting rice that has been polished to remove the bran. Unlike wine, in which alcohol (ethanol) is produced by fermenting sugar that is naturally present in grapes, sake is produced by a brewing process more like that of beer, where the starch is converted into sugars, before being converted to alcohol.

Déjà Vu Sake Co.

Japanese-born Ochiai established Deja vu Sake Co in 2012 with her husband Andrew Cameron, inspired by a vision to introduce boutique and small-batch Japanese sake to Australia.

Within five short years in business, the company has asserted itself as a leading importer of Japanese sake, as well as other famed Japanese exports including whisky and shochu. Unlike traditional importing channels, approximately 40% of Deja vu's sales are retail-driven rather than incurred through traditional Japanese restaurant trade.

L'usine

Wine like art is raw. It requires years of hard work. It has a high likelihood of failing. It is subjective at best. It isn't always pretty. Like art, for every good or great wine that is made there have been thousands of failures.

L'usine is the French word for "The Factory." It is an homage to all the Warhols of the world. All those with disdain for the status quo of a defined or insinuated model. All of those with the defiant nature shared by artists and winemakers past and present. Pablo Picasso said it best.

Orin Swift Wines

The history of Orin Swift Cellars dates back to 1995 when on a lark, David Swift Phinney took a friend up on an offer and went to Florence, Italy to spend a semester "studying". During that time, he was introduced to wine, how it was made, and got hooked.

A few more years of university led to graduation and eventually a job at Robert Mondavi Winery in 1997 as a temporary harvest worker. Deciding that if he was going to work this hard, it would eventually have to be for himself, he founded Orin Swift Cellars in 1998; Orin is his father's middle name and Swift is his mother's maiden name. With two tons of zinfandel and not much else, he spent the next decade making wine for others as well as himself and grew the brand to what it is today.

LOCATIONS WINE™

Locations Wine Series

In the world of wine there are compelling Locations that exist where soil, climate and vines interact to produce grapes that uniquely express their Location through wine.

Our love of wine recognizes the nuances of time and place that combine and interact to represent location.

These Locations exist individually within appellations of the new and old world, but are seldom combined across appellation, in the art of blending due to laws and restrictions that make it near impossible to express true winemaking freedom.

Ravenswood

Ravenswood was one of the first on the scene to focus their winemaking efforts to the production of classically big and bold Zinfandel from Sonoma County and bring it to the world stage.

Vintners Blend - Ravenswoods affordable everyday wines, debuted in the mid 80s. Since the Vintners Blend Series was introduced, the foundation of the Ravenswood portfolio has remained focused on the varietals that started it all: Zinfandel, Cabernet Sauvignon, and Merlot.

American Whiskey

American Whiskey is a distilled spirit produced in the USA made primarily from a fermented mash of cereal grains including corn (maize), rye, wheat and malt.

There are many different types of American whiskey, one being Bourbon whiskey. This is made from no less than 51% corn (maize) and is aged in Bourbon barrels. Around 95% of Bourbon is produced in the state of Kentucky although it can be produced anywhere in the USA.

Usually mixed with cola, American whiskey's can also be served straight, on the rocks, or as a base for cocktails such as an 'Old Fashioned', 'Whiskey Sour' and the 'Manhattan'.

Early Times

Early Times came into being in 1860, at Early Times Station, Kentucky. Kentucky water is perfect for making whisky because it is naturally filtered through limestone springs which makes it rich in minerals that add flavour and help with fermentation.

Early Times began to prosper in 1920 when Prohibition began and Early Times was designated a 'medicinal whisky', making it exempt from the law.

Gentleman Jack

Launched in 1988 the Gentleman Jack expression is the only whiskey that is twice charcoal mellowed making it a very smooth sipping whiskey.

Every bourbon/whiskey has five sources of flavour however in the process of making Jack Daniel's there is a sixth added; charcoal mellowing. The six sources of flavour in making Jack Daniel's are the grain recipe, water source, fermentation, distillation, charcoal mellowing and the maturation process.

Where Gentleman Jack differs from Black Label is that it has a second charcoal mellowing process that occurs after initial barrel aging and before bottling; this defines the smoothness Gentleman Jack has to offer.

Jack Daniel's

Jack Daniel's believed "Every day we make it, we'll make it the best we can."

For Jack that meant mellowing his whiskey drop by drop through 10 feet of sugar maple charcoal. Seven generations later, they still mellow the whiskey just as Mr. Jack did.

The reason is simple – it imparts a distinctive smoothness folks have come to expect of Jack Daniel's charcoal mellowing which makes Jack Daniel's what it is – a Tennessee Whiskey and not a Bourbon. It refines the whiskey's rich flavour even before it is fully matured in barrels of their own making.

It's a painstaking process that demands extra attention and makes the whiskey a bit more costly to craft. But Mr. Jack wouldn't have it any other way.

Jack Daniel's Single Barrel

Jack Daniel's Old No 7 and Jack Daniel's Single Barrel are consistent in the flavour process up to and including the charcoal mellowing. It's the maturation process that sets Jack Daniel's Single Barrel apart, both in the location within the barrel houses and the duration of the maturation.

The barrels for the Single Barrel are stored in the top levels of the barrel house where there are greater fluctuations in the temperature. The hotter temperatures result in greater expansion of the liquid in to the wood resulting in a full bodied robust whiskey with intense vanilla and wood notes.

Only 3 out of every 100 barrels are ever chosen to become Jack Daniel's Single Barrels.

Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey

Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey is crafted with world-renowned Jack Daniel's Tennessee Whiskey. The whiskey is mingled with a proprietary honey liqueur resulting in a unique, smooth offering.

“In every sense of the word, this is a natural” says Jack Daniel's Master Taster Jeff Norman. “Jack Daniel's Tennessee Honey brings together two complementary tastes in a new way. The quality and character of Tennessee Honey is in keeping with the Jack Daniel's tradition, and we think our friends will be pleasantly surprised with the new offering”.

Jeff Norman noted that the flavour characteristics of honey greatly complement Jack Daniel's uniquely smooth charcoal-mellowed character. With hints of honey and other natural flavours creating a complex taste profile, Jeff says the product is unlike any other offering in the honey category.

Old Forester

America's first bottled Bourbon that set the standard for quality and consistency since 1870.

Old Forester's full body and robust flavour derive from its painstaking production and aging process. Its unique yeast strain and grain content combine to produce a mash of extraordinary complexity.

The Bourbon is ultimately distilled twice and then aged in newly-toasted oak barrels for a period of four to six years before bottling. The higher alcohol level of 40% delivers a full proof flavour.

Old Forester is amber in colour, the nose is sweet and spicy with maple vanilla and the body is medium to full with butterscotch and oranges.

EST. 1874

Southern Comfort

Southern Comfort is the spirit created by bartenders for bartenders.

It was invented in the heart of New Orleans' famous French Quarter in 1874 by a bartender named Martin Wilkes 'M.W'. Heron. The recipe is a secret blend of whisky, fruit and spice flavours that provide the distinctive smooth-tasting flavour that Southern Comfort is renowned for.

The complex combination of flavours makes it one of the most versatile and mixable products on the market and ensures that it can be enjoyed with various mixers or as an exciting cocktail base.

Woodford Reserve

Woodford Reserve is a super premium, small batch Bourbon handcrafted at the historic Woodford Reserve Distillery, America's oldest and smallest working distillery, circa 1812.

Located in the heart of Kentucky's Bluegrass Region, The Woodford Reserve distillery is the only distillery where traditional whiskey making is still practised. Cypress vat fermentation, triple copper pot stills, the finest grains and pure limestone water are used to craft this unique bourbon. The result is a bourbon of exceptional richness, depth and character with a smooth, well-rounded finish.

Since its release, Woodford Reserve has won numerous gold medals at the world's most prestigious spirits tasting competitions, including the title of The World's Best Bourbon three times at the San Francisco Spirits Competition.

Gin

A transparent spirit produced with several different botanicals with the main flavour profile of juniper. One of the broadest categories of spirit, Gin can be made with many combinations of botanicals using a variety of techniques - all of which creating a Gin revolving around juniper.

Though there are many styles of gin, including 'London', 'Dry' and 'Distilled' gin, the common rule for each of these styles is that the predominant flavour must be juniper - no matter how it is produced.

Cocktails such as a 'Martini' and the 'Tom Collins' use gin as a base spirit, but gin is also commonly drunk with tonic water and a garnish of lemon or lime.

Caorunn

Since 2009, Caorunn Gin has been handcrafted in small batches at Balmenach Distillery in the Speyside region of the Scottish Highlands. Caorunn {pronounced 'ka-roon'} is from the Gaelic word for 'Rowan Berry' which is one of five unique Celtic botanicals that are at the heart of the gin. It is the only gin in the world to be distilled in a working Copper Berry Chamber. This unique process allows extraction of maximum flavour from the botanicals.

Caorunn is the taste of wild sophistication – an expert infusion of five locally foraged botanicals and six traditional botanicals. Caorunn is traditionally served with cool fizzing tonic and slices of red apple to highlight its aromatic flavour profile, however the gin is beautifully versatile which means its also perfect for any classic or contemporary cocktail.

Half Hitch Gin

Produced in the former warehouse vaults of Camden Lock, Half Hitch Gin is made using a gin base that is blended with tinctures of black tea, pepper, hay, English wood and bergamot.

Unbeknown to many, the North London borough of Camden was once a gin haven. The Half Hitch name and bottle label stems from the type of rope knot – a round turn and two half hitches – used by those mooring up their barges along Camden Lock.

Rutte (Ruh-tuh)

AROMATIC GIN FROM A TRADITIONAL DUTCH DISTILLERY

Rutte has been distilling jenevers, gins and liqueurs since 1872 and today the firm's motto still remains the same: "distilled with passion". They use no artificial flavorings or colorings; all of the flavour and color comes from fresh fruit, herbs and nuts, which is obvious from the products' sublime flavors and aromas!

The historical building in the center of Dordrecht has been preserved in its original state. The distillation process is still carried out there and smaller, more specialized orders are still bottled by hand. The family's former living room on the first floor has been converted into a gorgeous tasting room.

Scapegrace

Liquid behaves differently in the Southern Hemisphere, and Scapegrace Gin is no different.

Simply put, it took three likeminded chaps, from the bottom of the world, to embrace this behaviour. They started a new conversation about gin, not by shouting, but by speaking discretely. A whisper in the ear here, a tactful chat there, putting those in the know, in the know, and then letting a superior product do the talking.

What it started was an artisan revolution and a respect for gin craft, introducing a socially receptive market to the subtleties of a well-made gin. Perceptions have shifted, Mother's ruin is no longer.

Ukiyo Gin

Ukiyo Japanese spirits was born in Kagoshima in the shadow of the Sakurajima volcano, and are made from a base of locally grown rice distilled into traditional spirits.

From a harvest of locally grown rice we first create a traditional low calorie, low sugar shōchū spirit. Shōchū is the national drink of Japan and has outsold sake since 2003 (komejōchū).

Using 130+ years of distillery knowledge our shōchū is redistilled with juniper, regional citrus and native botanicals. The result is a masterfully distilled traditional Japanese Rice Gin.

Rum

Rum comes in many varieties including dark, golden, flavoured and light and is popularly produced in the Caribbean and Latin America. Although largely produced in these areas rum can be and is produced around the world.

Rum is made by the fermentation and distillation process of molasses or in some French speaking islands it is preferable to use sugar cane juice. After the distillation rum is clear in colour and can be bottled as white rum, but it can also be aged in oak barrels which creates its well known caramel colour.

Rum is the perfect cocktail base for classic cocktails such as a 'Daiquiri' or 'Mojito' where a white rum is preferable. Although golden rums are popularly served with cola in a short glass.

Black Magic

Black magic black spiced rum is a superior rum with an exceptional taste.

21st century rum is appreciably better than the kill-devil pirates and navy-men drank in the 17th and 18th centuries. A spirit made from sugarcane or its byproducts, rums today are refined and range from clean-tasting, light rums that feature their cane spirit base, to flavorful dark rums, and aged rums that rival great cognacs and whiskies.

Black magic, in particular, is a blend of light and dark rums with a secret blend of various spices, crafted to be more versatile than other brands, for your enjoyment and adventure.

Brugal

Brugal was founded in 1888 in Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic by Don. Andres Brugal, a Spaniard by birth, whose goal was to create only the finest Caribbean rum.

He succeeded. His expertise in the art of rum making has been passed through the generations of the Brugal family, the Maestros Roneros, who are the guardians of our rums, making sure every bottle produced has gained the privilege to wear Brugal on it.

What makes Brugal special is its distinctive dry, woody profile. This is the result of a unique fermentation, distillation, aging and crafting process.

CHARLES
MERSEUR & CO.
- LONDON -
RUM MERCHANTS

Charles Merseur & Co.

Merseur & Co. is London's first rum blending house in over one hundred years.

They are here to bring back the lost craft of rum blending to London. To champion traditional production approaches, reinvigorate interest into the forgotten world of 19th Century rum cocktails and put London Rum back on the map.

All their rums are produced using the same traditional approaches that were employed by the late, great rum blending houses of London over 100 years ago. Like them, they source aged rums from all across the Caribbean, blend them, marry them in London and - like those before them - they never add sugar or colour. What you see is a natural product, produced to centuries-old standards.

Mount Gay

Mount Gay Rum is the product of over 300 years of knowledge, experience and refinement applied to the process of making rum. Each of the rum’s complex flavours have been coaxed from natural Barbadian ingredients and the input of many generations of master blenders.

Mount Gay rums are crafted from the finest Caribbean sugar cane molasses combined with pure coral-filtered water. They are made from a blend of single column and double copper pot distillates, all matured in toasted oak casks that previously held Bourbon. This artisanal process gives Mount Gay its unique style and rich taste.

The name ‘Mount Gay’ comes from Sir John Gay. He came into the rum business when taking over management of a friend’s plantation and distillery that stood on a hilltop in St. Lucy, Barbados.

Smith and Cross Jamaica Rum

Smith & Cross Jamaica Rum contains only Wedderburn and Plummer pot still distillates, famous for their notes of exotic fruits and spice. The incomparable complexity of this rum delivers a tour de force of flavour that historically made it a cornerstone of classic rum drinks. We have chosen not to chill filter this spirit in order to retain its full flavour.

The mark of Smith & Cross traces its lineage to one of England's oldest producers of sugar and spirits. Its history dates back to 1788 with a sugar refinery located at No. 203 Thames Street, by the London Docks. Over time, the firm and its partners became prominent handlers of Jamaica rum, with extensive underground cellars along the River Thames.

Tequila

Tequila is produced using the Blue Agave plant, which is native to an area in Mexico called Jalisco. Many countries only recognise tequila if it is produced in Mexico, while Mexican law states that tequila may only be produced in Jalisco, Mexico.

Available in many varieties, tequila can be bottled directly after distillation to create 'Blanco' (white) or 'Plata' (silver) tequila. Although tequila may also be aged in different sized oak barrels to create 'Reposado' and 'Anejo' tequila, which are typically golden or yellow in colour.

Traditionally tequila is meant to be sipped on and is usually served in a thin shot glass. However, globally it has been the base of many popular cocktails such as the 'Margarita' and the Mexican favourite the 'Paloma'.

el Jimador

From Casa Herradura, el Jimador is a premium tequila that captures the spirit of Mexico. Crafted in the very center of Mexico's rich agave producing region using a natural production process, this estate bottled tequila has a smooth and balanced taste.

The name el Jimador honours the men who harvest the locally grown agave with great pride and care. That care spreads through every step of the process and is the reason Mexicans consume more el Jimador than any other tequila because of its high quality and authenticity.

Vodka

Vodka is a popular clear spirit that is traditionally produced with potatoes or cereal grains. Many vodkas are produced to 40% ABV (80 proof), however this is also the minimum ABV to label and sell a product as vodka in the USA.

Today vodka is produced with grains such as corn, rye or wheat. Although it is possible to produce vodka from many plants that are high in starch or sugar.

Globally vodka has become a versatile spirit that is paired with many different mixers - sodas and fruit juices are great examples. Traditionally vodka is drunk straight, however it has a very bland taste highlighting the reason behind the rise in flavoured vodkas.

Crystal Head
VODKA

Crystal Head Vodka

The creators of Crystal Head Vodka believe that Vodka is, or should be, the ultimate pure spirit. As the standard-bearer for what vodka should be, they have reset the bar for purity in terms of the water, the ingredients, the process and even the completely clear vessel.

The highest quality peaches and cream corn is distilled four times and blended with the pristine waters of Newfoundland, Canada. The liquid is then filtered seven times, of which three are through layers of semi-precious crystals known as Herkimer Diamonds.

It is for these reasons that Crystal Head Vodka is winning competitions worldwide.

Tito's Handmade Vodka

Tito's Handmade Vodka is America's Original Craft Vodka. In 1995, Bert "Tito" Beveridge obtained the first legal permit to distill in Texas and created Tito's Handmade Vodka. Even after getting the permit, it was an uphill battle for Tito – he took out 19 credit cards to fund the construction of the distillery as well as building the pot-stills required to distill his Vodka.

Tito's Vodka is batch distilled using old-fashioned pot stills and corn as a base rather than wheat. This results in a naturally Gluten-Free Vodka. Tito's Handmade Vodka is distilled and bottled in Austin, Texas on the very same land where the whole venture started over 20 years ago, and each batch is still taste tested by Tito himself to ensure Tito's award-winning quality is maintained.

Today, Tito's Handmade Vodka is one of the most successful microdistilleries out there and remains one of the purest spirits available.

Bruichladdich

Bruichladdich is an artisanal single malt distillery on the Hebridean Island of Islay, Scotland.

Its aim is to create the most thought-provoking whisky possible. Bruichladdich spirit matures all its life in warehouses above Loch Indall (the fresh salt tang is a signature accent of Bruichladdich single malt) and it is the only major distiller to bottle spirit on the island itself.

Bruichladdich whisky is bottled naturally, un-chill filtered and with no added colour. This retains the vital natural oils which give its spirit its complex flavour profile and mouthfeel.

Benriach

Located in the 'Heart of Speyside', in the North-East region of Morayshire, Benriach displays all the traditional charm of a Speyside distillery. Built by John Duff in 1898, Benriach draws its water from the Burnside springs located underground, deep below the distillery.

Benriach distillery experiments with several interesting wood finishes and continues to produce whisky from both peated and non-peated malted barley. The Benriach portrays its own uniqueness through the particular methods and skills of the men who craft the whisky, the ingredients used, the distinctive copper stills and the high quality casks selected for maturation.

GlenDronach

The GlenDronach Distillery nestled in the valley of Fergie, deep in the East Highland hills near Aberdeenshire, is named after the source of its water: the Dronach burn. Founded in 1826, The GlenDronach was one of the very first licensed distilleries and has a history of enterprising owners, from the flamboyant James Allardice to the ambitious Walter Scott. Allardice was a colourful character and stories abound as to how he promoted his whisky with entrepreneurial flair. He was a pioneer of sherry cask maturation and would have celebrated today's superb The GlenDronach, maturing their whisky in the finest Pedro Ximenez and Oloroso sherry casks.

Although times have moved on, the processes used to create The GlenDronach have remained largely unchanged. The GlenDronach is of true Highland style.

A WILD HARMONY

IS MADE

Highland Park

Highland Park is made today, just as it was in 1798, using five keystones of production. No other distillery uses all five keystones, so no other whisky tastes like Highland Park.

The importance of peat to whisky cannot be overstated. Ours is cut by hand from Hobbister Moor, only seven miles from the distillery. Over 9,000 years old and nearly four metres deep in places, it's composed of layer upon layer of densely compacted vegetation – the DNA of Orkney.

We're unashamedly obsessed with casks. It starts with trees - European and American oak - carefully selected and cut into staves at precisely 45° to make it hard for any spirit to escape. Exactly how our Viking ancestors made their longships watertight!

Mars Whisky

The Hombo family, owners of Mars Whisky first took out a license to distil whisky in 1949, although it was not until 1960 that it started making whisky - and not in Kagoshima, but at a purpose built plant in Yamanashi.

Sandwiched between Japan's soaring Southern Alps and the towering Central Alps, at just over 2,600 feet, Mars Shinshu is Japan's highest whisky distillery. The Hombo family chose this site for its cool temperatures, which slowed maturation, and the plentiful, soft, granite filtered snowmelt fed aquifers. Smart choice. The whiskies are elegant, smooth and very complex.

MACKINLAY'S

Mackinlay's

Founded in 1815 in a suburb of Edinburgh, Charles Mackinlay & Co Ltd, started production of whisky in 1860's.

In 1907, their whisky was selected by Lord Ernest Shackleton as official Scotch whisky and brought to his Antarctic hut.

Having been inherited over several generations, the Mackinlay secret technique of blending continues to offer gorgeous flavour, aroma and a smooth, mellow taste that is typical with classic Scotch whisky.

Shackleton

It is rare that something truly unique comes along in the whisky world these days - Shackleton's Whisky is one such thing. Whyte & Mackay have recreated a whisky that had been buried under the ice of Antarctica for a century!

Inspired by Sir Ernest Shackleton and his story, Richard Paterson has spent many years perfecting a new whisky. Enter - Shackleton Blended Malt. This whisky has been expertly crafted by using a recreation of the antique Mackinlay's as its foundation, combined with the finest Highland malt whiskies.

Naked Malt

Naked Malt

Convention said blended malts should mature in pre-used bourbon casks. But where's the fun in following convention?

Instead, Naked Malt has extra-matured a unique blend of the world's finest single malts in first-fill sherry casks. Naked casks they called them, as they'd never held whisky before.

Scapegrace New Zealand Made Single Malt Whisky

Everyone loves a compelling story. A tale with twists and turns, unconventional characters and remarkable events. Better Still, that rare collection of prose whose narrative is so original that it becomes the vanguard for everything that follows, such is scapegrace.

A range of whisky where the land itself is the central theme. its character defined by the characters within, individual ingredients beaten and shaped by violent swings of temperature and climate. Its accent, distinct.

New Zealand authors with a volatile hand, but her innovative compositions are layered with subtle elegance and unorthodox charm. Ripples in a storm. Such is the future of whisky.

Teeling Irish Whiskey

Our philosophy: Authenticity. Independence. Quality. Innovation

The Teeling's are renowned for their vision in doing things differently and their Whiskey's embody this entrepreneurial spirit. By producing handcrafted, small batch Irish Whiskey since 1782 the Teeling family have captured the Irish climate, culture and history perfectly.

With a higher than usual ABV, 46% or more, you can really taste the whiskey - this is heightened as there is no chill filtering or colour added.

The Macallan

Deep Roots - FOUNDED IN 1824

The Macallan was one of the first distillers in Scotland to be legally licensed. Since then we have built a reputation as one of the world's leading single malt whiskies. The creation of The Macallan draws on the vital contributing influences of Spain, North America and Scotland - and of their respective natural raw materials, combined with traditional methods and craftsmanship.

Unmatched Quality - CHARACTERISED BY COLOUR

All of our whiskies take 100% of their colour from the wood in which they are matured. As wood is a natural product, each tree is different and in turn, imparts different flavours and colours to the whisky during maturation. The skill of the whisky makers ensures colour is as consistent as possible from bottling to bottling, through the management and selection of the casks which provide the spectrum of natural colour essential to The Macallan single malt.

Tamnavulin

Tucked away on the edge of the River Livet, the skilled, time-served craftsmen and women at Tamnavulin Distillery have been creating thier signature Speyside malt for over 50 years.

Their story began in 1966 with the opening of the distillery in the rural village of Tomnavoulin, Scotland. Although the doors were closed in 1995, they reopened them in 2007 after a major distillery refurbishment. Since then, they have crafted exceptional single malt whisky with a true Speyside character; rich, smooth and mellow.

Whyte & Mackay

Since it was established in 1844 Whyte & Mackay has been a truly unique proposition amongst its contemporaries. Triple maturation is the secret behind the award-winning taste of Whyte & Mackay.

Firstly, the finest single malt whiskies, each individually matured for many years, are carefully selected by our master blender. Next, they are combined in sherry casks and matured once again to attain a perfect harmony of flavours. Finally, the blended malts are mixed with aged grain whiskies and returned to cask to mature even further.

This dedication to the art of blending creates an extra smooth and richer tasting whisky.

Specialty Spirits

Spirits are the continued process of distilling a fermented, alcoholic mixture. Before the distilling process, the mixture can only reach an ABV of around 20% as this is the point when the yeast can no longer ferment. The fermentation process is how wine, beer and cider are produced as they are not distilled and are lower in alcohol.

Hapsburg Absinthe

Absinthe is one of history's most notorious liqueurs - sipped by artists and writers, namely Oscar Wilde, Monet, Picasso, and Van Gogh, for creative inspiration.

Established in 1999, Hapsburg Absinthe was one of the few pioneering brands to appear when the first resurgence of Absinthe took place since it had been banned in Switzerland in 1905. Over the past 15 years Hapsburg has offered much more than just a tasty drink; a true lifestyle experience. Hapsburg's brand ideology has always been to create a drink that is unique, contemporary and delicious.

Today, Hapsburg represents the new diverse generation of Absinthe drinkers; from the young dynamic student to the more seasoned and edgy drinker.

The treasures that the Darroze family have been hunting out since 1974, this eau-de-vie from the land of armagnac, a little secret,...

...authentic lifeblood of the land, concentrated with aromas and flavours, of expressions and unique characters.

Francis Darroze – initiated by his father Jean Darroze, famous chef from Villeneuve de Marsan – and his son Marc, roam the estates on the best terroirs, that of the Bas Armagnac and its tawny sands, to select, cultivate and bottle the most beautiful discoveries. Around forty estates contribute to this extraordinary collection that complete and perfect their ageing in the Roquefort cellars. Rare and ancient barrels, or eaux-de-vies from the alambic from a small property, distilled by a reputed mobile distiller and that require several decades of subtle and careful ageing in oak barrels for them to express the qualities of the place and the vintage.

Dolin Vermouth

Founded in 1821 and with over 188 years of traditions and family experience, Dolin Vermouth is produced in Chambéry in the heart of the French Alps, by the last independent company still producing Vermouth de Chambéry.

The Dolin range includes Dry, Blanc & Rouge, which are all made to the same 1821 recipe. Made from a special selection of fine wines and botanicals found in the Alpine meadows above Chambéry that give a fresh, elegant nose with a subtle, complex and bittersweet palate.

Ideal as an aperitif or in classic and contemporary cocktails.

Fee Brothers

As the saying goes, you only ever need one bottle of bitters per marriage. If that's true, Fee Brothers has been promoting the divorce rate for four generations and the recipes of its house bitters are closely guarded secrets.

Bitters are, as their name suggests, a bitter or bittersweet type of spirit made from different herbs, roots and plants. Bitters are used to flavour and add a dry zest to cocktails and cooking. Because of their function as a digestive aid and appetite stimulant bitters are often used in before and after dinner cocktails.

Peychaud's

Peychaud's is the classic bitter that pushes licorice root to the fore. It is also unique among aromatic bitters for its tart and fruity flavors, with lots of rhubarb-like vegetal twang and the sweet juiciness of cherry candy. There is some spice, mostly clove, with a pop of saffron and orange zest before a long and moderately bitter gentian finish.

COINTREAU

THE ART OF THE MIX

Cointreau

The definitive orange liqueur, Cointreau is the original Triple Sec and is sold in over 200 countries worldwide. It is a 100% pure, crystal clear liqueur, made from bitter and sweet orange peels.

In 1849, two brothers Adolphe and Edouard-Jean Cointreau established a distillery in Angers, France, where they invented Cointreau in 1875. The recipe has remained unchanged ever since.

Cointreau is the heart of classic cocktails such as the Cointreaupolitan, Margarita, Side Car, Cosmopolitan and White Lady. It is also enjoyed over ice or as a long drink with lime and soda as the 'Cointreau Fizz'.

Jägermeister

Jägermeister

Jägermeister is the best selling German spirit in the world. It is produced from a mysterious blend of 56 fruits, roots and herbs with 35% alcohol. The recipe was developed in 1935 and still remains a closely guarded secret today.

The brand has had huge international success, particularly in the USA. It has also experienced phenomenal growth in New Zealand where it has a loyal following.

It should always be served ice cold, and is best enjoyed as a shot, mixed with an energy drink or mixed with ginger beer and fresh lime as a long drink.

Director

Günter Mast

“The taste is not a matter of chance, the result of decades of experience and a secret recipe.”

WHEN THE NIGHT IS BREWING

Jägermeister

+ A HINT OF COFFEE

Introducing Jägermeister Cold Brew

Inspired by the innovative, ever-changing drinks scene, we instinctively knew how a drop of Jägermeister and a backbeat of coffee could transform any night. The enviable result? A brand-new mix. Jägermeister Cold Brew Coffee Liqueur. A unique fusion of Jägermeister's 56 botanicals and intense cold brew coffee from rich 100% Arabica beans + hints of cacao, beer and fresh lime as a long drink.

Mandarine Napoleon

Originating in the early 1800's in Belgium, Mandarine Napoleon was first created for the Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte initially macerating mandarin peels in cognac. This premium citrus liqueur is now combined with twenty seven herbs and spices from around the world and mandarins sourced from the best orchards in Sicily and the South Eastern region of Spain.

Distinctive, spicy, intensive mandarin flavour - with a rich fruit - driven after - taste, Mandarine Napoleon is a liqueur full of zest and is best consumed straight, on the rocks, mixed in cocktails or as a refreshing long drink.

Amaro Montenegro

Over 125 years of Italian history – first produced in 1885 in Bologna by a famous Italian spirits manufacturer, Stanislao Cobianchi. His extensive knowledge of herbs inspired him to create a new product, a delicate amber-coloured liqueur.

Amaro (meaning “bitter” in Italian) is a variety of Italian herbal liqueur produced from a blend of over 40 different herbs from all over the world. The process involves a distinct soaking and distillation process which results in a liquor sweet in taste with a slightly bitter finish.

Enjoy Amaro Montenegro on the rocks, straight or in a cocktail.

Rosso Antico Vermouth

Rosso Antico is an aromatised wine but has the appearance, aroma and taste of a high-quality rosso vermouth. Rosso Antico is a masterful blend of select white wines and 33 botanicals. To preserve their aromatic characteristics, the botanicals are stored whole until production. They are then processed using the classic extraction methods of blending and boiling.

Three species of Wormwood - Absinthium, Pontica and Vulgaris – endow the liquid with its characteristic personality and balanced level of pleasant bitterness.

The most distinct element of the Rosso Antico aroma is the Ireos Fiorentina, one of the finest varieties of Iris, which gives the vermouth its signature floral notes.

APERITIVO NATO A VENEZIA

Select Aperitivo

Uniqueness, legacy, taste: in no other city in the world are these concepts as valuable as in Venice. It is no coincidence that the story of Select Aperitivo began right there, in the district of Castello, the historical heart of this intriguing city.

The year was 1920 and Venice was in deep turmoil following World War I. The young Pilla brothers, with their distillery and expertise in the art of making liquors, seized this unique moment and used it to their advantage.

Almost a century has passed, but today, Select Aperitivo is still known as the true icon of the Venetian aperitif: a unique bitter that is served at the iconic bars in the Lagoon and by bartenders around the world, eager to offer something unique and special.

Tuaca

Tuaca's original recipe dates to the renaissance where it is rumoured to have been created for Lorenzo the Magnificent, a patron to Michelangelo and Botticelli.

In 1938 Tuscan brother's in-law Geatona Tuoni and Giorgio Canepa re-discovered this centuries old recipe, made it even more desirable and renamed it Tuaca. The exact recipe is a secret which has remained in the hills of Tuscany.

Tuaca is surprisingly smooth yet bold, strong yet sweet and can be enjoyed in cocktails, with coffee, as a chilled shot or as a mixed drink. Tuaca is smooth and irresistible with hints of citrus and vanilla - uniquely different and unlike anything you have ever tasted.

“Tuaca is a smooth, striking blend of vanilla, distilled essences of Mediterranean citrus fruits and rich brandies.”

RTD'S

RTD stands for 'Ready To Drink' and as the name suggests, it is a premade mix of a spirit and a popular mixer, such a cola.

Their convenience is why RTD's are so popular, instead of buying a large bottle of spirit and a mixer to go with it, RTD's remove the hassle of having to mix each drink as you want one.

Usually sold in bottles or cans, much like soda, RTD's usually come in the perfect quantity such as 4 or 6 packs, and even 10 packs, which ensure that there is no hassle when it comes to enjoying spirits.

Cheeky Hard Iced Tea

Gentleman Jack RTD

Gentleman Jack & Cola RTD gives the Jack Daniel's trademark access to the super-premium RTD category, which is the fastest growing segment of the New Zealand RTD market.

Gentleman Jack & Cola is the first super-premium RTD to be based predominantly on whiskey as the primary indicator for a quality of offering versus one of higher ABV. Smoothness is a key consumer benefit in taste of premium spirits.

Gentleman Jack is the only twice charcoal mellowed whiskey in the world, offering the smoothest taste profile of any super-premium whiskey, and with Gentleman Jack we invite consumers to truly taste the difference.

Jack Daniel's RTD

The classic taste of Jack Daniel's Whiskey, perfectly paired with cola in a conveniently pre-made RTD.

Jack Daniel's RTD is made with the same whiskey painstakingly mellowed drop by drop through 10 feet of maple sugar. This ensures the familiar smoothness folks have come to expect of Jack Daniel's charcoal mellowing – which makes Jack Daniels what it is – a Tennessee Whiskey and not a Bourbon.

Available in both cans and bottles.

Beer & Cider

Beer is the process of fermenting malted cereal grains and also adding hops into the mixture for bitterness. The third most popular beverage after water and tea, beer is produced and enjoyed worldwide.

Craft beer and microbreweries have become game-changers in New Zealand. On the rise since the turn of the 21st century, craft beer has turned more Kiwis to higher priced premium beer. Guidelines for beer are very loose, with many breweries producing low or no alcohol beer and also adding different flavours such as lemon and other fruit flavourings to cater for its vastly diverse market.

The resulting alcoholic beverage of the fermentation of apple juice is Cider. Any type of apples can be used to produce cider however the best and most commonly used apple is the cider apple.

Cider is a popular beverage around the world can also be used to produce products such as apple cider vinegar, calvados and applejack.

Christian Drouin Calvados

The production of cider on the Coeur de Lion estate is mentioned as early as 1638 in a deed where cider was used as part payment of the lease of the estate. The story of Drouin Calvados began around 1960. There was nothing to indicate that Christian Drouin was destined to make a career in spirits. Nothing, that is, apart from his taste for good food and good wines. When he bought a farm he decided to use the cider-apple orchards to produce Calvados.

“Made from a blend of about thirty apple varieties, creating a balanced cider with a uniquely rich taste and aroma..”

Puhoi Beer

Puhoi is a classic wee spot bathed in sun and nestled in bush beside a historic river. It's rich in history - and Puhoi Beer thought a pretty good village really deserves a pretty good beer. So they made one... and just quietly, between you and us, and half of Puhoi, it's not bad at all.

Puhoi Beer is a kiwi version of the classic Czech pilsner. Inspired by the original Bohemian settlers of Puhoi, Puhoi Beer is a drinkable lager with a bunch of character.

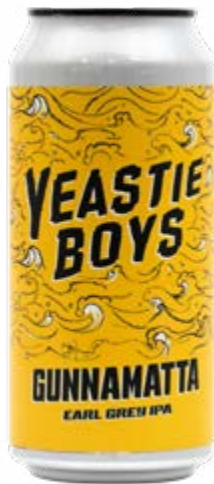

If we were trying to impress you we might have crapped on about Puhoi Beer being a mix of NZ and classic Czech noble hops that provide floral, citrusy, and spicy flavours on a light malt base with subtle bready and toasty characters. But we wouldn't want to beer-bore you so let's just say it's bloody tasty.

Hancocks also provides a range of alcohol-free beverages from award-winning water to alcohol-free wines.

The Fentimans range highlights a premium range of mixers that ensure you get the best flavours out of your drinks. Not only are these bottles made to be the perfect size mixer for cocktails, but they also have a range of botanically brewed beverages that can be enjoyed alone.

Edenvale devotes their whole range to producing alcohol free wine for many different varieties, while Henkell provides the option to celebrate alcohol-free to extend its market. By slowly heating wine the alcohol content evaporates leaving the familiar taste of wine without the worry of over-drinking.

With the alcohol industry constantly changing it is no wonder the choices for alcohol-free drinks keeps expanding.

LOW IN ALCOHOL BEVERAGES

*****

New laws around the sale of alcohol now require outlet to provide a reasonable range of both non and low alcoholic beverages at all times.

New blood alcohol limits have also lowered the amount people can drink and still drive within the law.

At the same time the health conscious trend is seeing people seek low carbs, calorie, sugar alternatives.

*****

CALORIE COUNT for Low Alcohol Beverages

With people more conscious about their diet and lifestyle options, the lower alcohol segment is fast becoming the hottest category in the liquor market.

In the most mature lower alcohol market, the UK, the segment is growing at +37% in volume terms* Nielsen UK: MAT 2/2/13

Determine CALORIES in your drink

FACT:
Low alcohol = low calorie.

Low alcohol wines tends to be sweeter in taste, hence higher in sugar content.

FOR ALCOHOL-FREE SPIRITS

Ecology & Co

Every bottle of Ecology & Co. starts its journey as a selection of the finest ingredients. Fragrant aromatics, zesty spices and no artificial flavours or aromas ensure that the final product is a feast for the senses.

We then distil each of the botanical ingredients individually without using any alcohol. This may seem like a painstaking process but we do so because it allows us to finely tune the flavour profile of each bottle of Ecology & Co.

The end product is a truly alcohol-free distilled spirit that is sure to satisfy even the most refined palette. It's a sugar-free, carb-free, fat-free and alcohol-free beverage base that's perfect to enjoy at any time or any occasion.

“As our lifestyles became healthier, entertaining became harder. Finding a grown-up drink that gave us the same fulfilling experience as our alcohol-filled favourites, was a lost cause... and if you love to socialise like us, you'll understand the dilemma we were in. That's what led to the creation of Ecology & Co!

Lost

Lost Garden Zero

Lost Garden Zero wines can be enjoyed any time as a great alcohol-free alternative. Garden Zero is a boutique Hawkes Bay producer of alcohol-free wines. The process of gently removing alcohol has been undertaken without compromising quality or taste.

Alcohol acts as a preservative, so these wines have a shorter shelf life. Non-alcohol wines are not designed to cellar, rather they should be drunk young, within 6 - 12 months of release. To ensure the wines retain their flavour profiles, they tend to have more Residual Sugar, however when made in a balanced style, like Lost Garden is, this should not be obvious. Alcohol has a high calorie content; one of the benefits of some zero alcohol wine is reduced calories. Lost Garden, is one of these with less than 29 calories per 150ml glass.

Harpoon Cold Brew

Cold water, Coffee and Time.

That's all it takes to make our delicious Harpoon Cold Brew. But the perfection lies deep in the details of what we make.

Harpoon Cold Brew is brewed here in NZ with cold filtered water over 18 hours to extract only the light and delicate flavours of the coffee, and avoiding the bitterness and acids that come out with a hot extraction.

As a result Harpoon Cold Brew is a long and refreshing way to drink coffee. Clean and smooth, with no sugar or anything artificial.

Dispensers & Systems

Le Verre de Vin, Lindr and Pegas are all top of the line beverage dispensing and preservation systems to ensure you are getting the best out of your wine, beer and other beverages.

Preservation systems such as Le Verre de Vin provide a solution for wine wastage. Le Verre de Vin allows wine, including Champagne, to last longer, which gives customers more “By the glass” options as well as saving money by not wasting wines.

Using systems with the latest technology helps your beverages go further, saves money and stops wastage.

*Lasts up to 21 days.

Le Verre de Vin

Le Verre de Vin is the only wine preservation system capable of effectively preserving an unlimited number of still, sparkling and fortified wines.

Le Verre de Vin ('the glass of wine') was invented in the U.K. in 1992. Its launch was the culmination of two years of research and development by a team of engineers and wine professionals. The innovative processes and technology incorporated within each unit are so advanced that the system has won fully granted patent status in all the major wine markets around the world.

Since its launch, Le Verre de Vin has won widespread acclaim from the thousands of hoteliers, restaurateurs and operators for whom it plays a pivotal role in the service of wine by the glass. The concept of offering the perfect wine match with each course on the menu is now a reality!

Lindr

In 1992, Mr. Milos Lindr established the manufacturing and service company in the field of cooling and dispensing equipment. Thanks to several years of hard work and listening to the customers needs, it quickly grew from a small family business to a leading Czech manufacturer of cooling and dispensing equipment.

Even though the company now employees more than fifty people and has its own integrated production program, it still considers itself as a family business.

“State of the art wine/beer service technology imported from Europe called Lindr, and utilises the revolutionary key keg technology.”

Eisch - Superior Sensis Plus Range

EischSuperior is our gourmet glass series made with SENSISPLUS effect. The glasses are made of high-quality crystal glass. Sparkling and lead-free. There are no special points to consider when caring for SENSISPLUS glasses, dishwasher-proof and durable; their SENSISPLUS qualities will be retained as a permanent feature.

What is SENSISPLUS?

After the manufacturing process, the glasses undergo a proprietary oxygenation treatment, which changes the molecular structure of the glass, creating a microscopic dimpling effect on the inner surface of the glass. The dimpling effect increases the surface tension of wine on the glass. Then with a swirling motion, it simply accelerates the reaction of the wine with the atmospheric oxygen this fully aerates the wine, sending more expressive aromatic compounds airborne, allowing it to better aerate your wine.
