

We are not just a gin.
We are a movement in a bottle.
A love letter to strong women and the wild, beautiful roads that shaped them.

We believe in power and softness.
In reinvention. In rest.
In joy as a form of resistance.
In healing that looks like messy laughter, late-night confessions, and dancing barefoot in your living room.

We are here for the woman becoming—becoming louder, lighter, wiser, freer.
The one who's been through it.
And the one who's coming out the other side, glowing.

Lady H is your elegance—your boundaries, your calm, your “no, thank you” with a smile.
Duchess H is your fire—your flirt, your thrill, your “hell yes” on a Tuesday.
Together, they remind you: you can be both. You always have been.

The House of H is for women who've outgrown shrinking.
It's for those who toast to growth, softness, pleasure, and pleasure again.

We don't do perfect.
We do present.
We do showing up.
We do celebration with intention.

So here's to your healing.
Here's to your comeback.
Here's to claiming joy, power, and really good gin.

*Lady H & Duchess H
You are the spirit. We just bottle it.*
