Vineyard:	The majority of the fruit for this 2014 Indulgence Viognier was sourced from their own Ohiti Estate vineyard, with a third of the fruit coming from their Hillside site out at Bridge Pa. Both sites were ideal during 2014 - being dry enough for the grapes to remain on the vines without developing rampant botrytis prematurely - giving the bunches time to intensify in complexity on the vine.
Vinification:	The fruit was carefully hand-picked into small bins on the 26th of April at 35 Brix. After arriving in the winery and then carefully pressed, the juice was allowed to settle, the must was then cold fermented and finally stopped when the alcohol had reached 10% - and the residual sugar ended up at 150 grams.
Appearance:	bright golden honey colour
Bouquet:	On the nose you have the sweet nectar of honey and ripe apricots.
Palate:	These notes carry through onto the palate which is full, rich and sweet. The 2014 Indulgence Viognier is packed with ripe stone-fruits, honey, floral nectar
