Vineyard:	Sourced from Peter Briants Patutahi vineyard. The vineyard is spur pruned and hand leaf plucked to fully expose the fruit, removing any green characters.
Vinification:	Half of the juice is bled from a normal red wine fermentation and the other half are treated as white, crushed destemmed and pressed immediately. The juice is then treated as a white wine, cooled fermented, stabilised and bottled.
Appearance:	Salmon pink.
Bouquet:	Aromas of summer berries with a hint of sherbert, peaches and cream.
Palate:	Surprisingly full flavoured with summer berries, ripe fruit flavours coupled with crisp acidity.
