Vineyard:	Branken Hill Vineyard, Hawkesbury, Marlborough
Vinification:	The grapes for this Pinot Noir Ros were selected by Jules from the Branken Hill Vineyard which is nestled in the Hawkesbury sub-region of Marlborough. The fruit was hand harvested late March in the early hours of the morning. At the winery, Jules crushed the grapes to the press, and left them on their skins for a couple of hours in order to produce the beautiful soft salmon pink colour
Appearance:	This wine has a soft salmon pink hue
Bouquet:	Raspberry, pomegranate and watermelon. It offers subtle suggestions of apple blossom and nuances of cream
Palate:	Red summer fruits with juicy acidity followed by subtle tones of quince and apple blossom
