Vinification:	Fruit was primarily sourced from The Jackson Estates Gum Emperor vineyard in the Southern Waihopai Valley. In the winery grapes were destemmed into small open top fermenters retaining a large proportion of whole berries before being cold soaked for 2 days, which preceded a warm and rapid fermentation. All batches were hand plunged as per winemakers instruction. Post primary fermentation, the young wines were pressed to a mix of stainless steel tank and new and older French oak barrels for matur
Bouquet:	Concentrated aromas of dark red fruits dominate and combine with undercurrents of spice on the nose
Palate:	Whilst the palate is loaded with dense red fruits and silky smooth tones. Tannins are soft and integrated with a supple mouthfeel leading to a classic Pinot Noir finish that is long and extremely moreish.
