Finding ones alter ego means discovering another side of yourself - familiar in origin, yet entirely different in expression. This perfectly captures what winemaker Matt Connell has achieved in crafting this wine: a fresh, dry white wine made from Pinot Noir grapes, revealing an unexpected side of this celebrated variety.
- Vinification: Hand selected grapes were picked on 8th April 2026. The fruit was from the Pisa sub-region, clone 6, hand-selected, whole-bunch pressed and fermented in stainless steel to capture the fruits aromatics. Fermentation took place from the 12th 30th April. No MLF. 13.5% alc. Vegan friendly.
- Appearance: Bright, light Copper in colour.
- Bouquet: The nose shows vibrant stone fruit aromatics, reminiscent of fruits traditionally grown in the Central Otago region; nectarine, peach and hints of cherries.
- Palate: This wine has a complex palate layered with redcurrant, strawberry and citrus notes. The finish is beautifully balanced and full of energy.
- Cellaring: 3 years
