Vineyard:	This wine reflects the up and coming Shiraz vineyards of the Barossa, rather than the battle hardened old vines that make up the core of our other cuves. But like all Torbreck wines, Woodcutters - Shiraz receives the very best viticultural and winemaking treatment. Although this wine is constantly praised for its succulence and richness, there is also a complexity and texture which is rarely found at this price.
Vinification:	Despite a dry winter during 2015, rains in January and March 2016, freshened the older vines and provided long, slow ripening periods in between, which led to a stand-out vintage with high quality fruit. MATURATION: 12 months in well-seasoned French oak hogsheads and foudre barrels
Appearance:	Deep Garnet, hues of purple
Bouquet:	Fresh blackberries, plum, cassis, dark cherry, chocolate and spice
Palate:	Medium to full bodied, soft tannins and textural mouthfeel
