Vineyard:	While the Eden Valley region is most associated with the white wine variety, Riesling, it also produces elegant, tautly structured Shiraz which is highly prized by winemakers. This Torbreck Shiraz cuve is a skilful blend of fruit from a single vineyard Eden Valley Shiraz and old vine Shiraz from the Barossa Valleys Western Ranges a marriage of elegance and intensity.80% Barossa Valley, 20% Eden Valley.
Vinification:	Strong winds at flowering at the beginning of the growing season reduced berry and bunch count in many vineyards. The difficult seasonal conditions continued up to harvest: a dry winter and spring were followed by very hot and dry December and January. 2020 was a difficult season to manage for both grower and winemaker with yields much lower than anticipated. Older vineyards with deeper roots remained steadfast under these conditions and produced small volumes of deeply concentrated wine
Appearance:	Deep crimson hue with an almost black core.
Bouquet:	Lifted aromatics of blackberry, blue berry, milk chocolate, mineral and graphite.
Palate:	Plush, dense and textural with a long finish. The tannins are soft yet concentrated and they will hold the powerful structure and fruit weight together for many years.
Cellaring:	20 Years
