Vineyard:	The grapes for this Chardonnay are sourced from several Margaret River sub-regions to gather the most favourable attributes of the region in this wine. The ripe and bold fruit flavours contributed by the centre of the region are deftly balanced by the fine acidity and perfumed notes from the south.
Appearance:	Bright yet pale yellow straw with green hues.
Bouquet:	Delicate ethereal notes of citrus blossom, honeysuckle and peach mingle with undertones of crème caramel and vanilla for a complex but fragrant bouquet.
Palate:	This wine combines refined fruit flavours of honey dew, citrus and fig with a sprinkle of nutmeal and has an enduring fine, mineral acidity to the finish.
