Vineyard:	At Gemtree we farm our estate vineyards organically and biodynamically. This philosophy rewards us with fruit full of flavour and purity; these are the gems from which we craft our fine wines.
Vinification:	These handmade, Small Batch wines are an expression of the joy and curiosity of winemaking, free from convention, free from restraints. Experimental batches made from small parcels of organic and biodynamic fruit. This is our first release of Gemtree Albarino, a wine we have waited so long to make. It is a distinctive expression of the site, a tiny spot at the top of the Gemtree vineyard, with a cool microclimate perfectly suited to growing white varieties.
Bouquet:	This Small Batch Albario has fragrant aromas of grapefruit, peach and nashi pear.
Palate:	On the palate this wine is delightfully soft and round with fruity flavours of peach, cumquat and almonds with balanced acidity and texture.
