Vineyard:	Domaine Laroche has a main plot in one piece on this cool and rocky terroir. The Vaudeveyare located in a very narrow and preserved valley, facing east, where the sun shines frommorning until mid-afternoon. This hillside is very steep, up to 30% in places
Vinification:	The grape bunches are sorted at the entrance to the cellar before being placed in a pneumatic press. Qualitative pressing at low pressure with separation of juices and selection of press cores only. Grape-friendly process for gentle extraction of the noblest aromatic compounds. Alcoholic and malolactic fermentations take place in French oak barrels (15%) in the historic Obdiencerie cellars in the heart of Chablis and in stainless steel vats on fine lees (85%).
