Vineyard:	The winter of 2019 was very mild and dry until the end of March, followed by a damper-than-average spring except in May. Rain in June was followed by a particularly sunny July and a hot and very dry summer, enabling the vines to produce highly aromatic grapes, full offruit. The presence in the vineyard and the expertise of Baron Philippe de Rothschild's winemakers helped to bring out the best of the 2019 vintage. The roses are beautifully fresh, revealing intense fruit aromas and flavours.
Vinification:	Mouton Cadet rosé is a blend of wines made using the direct pressing method, which gives a lighter-coloured wine than a classic Bordeaux rosé, with generous fruit aromas and flavours.
Appearance:	A bright, light pink.
Bouquet:	The nose opens on redcurrant and raspberry notes, then with airing goes on to reveal grenadine and pink grapefruit aromas.
Palate:	Raspberry flavours are prominent on a delicate attack which leads into an attractively fresh midpalate sustained by precise tannins and a finish on notes of grapefruit and redcurrant.
