Vineyard:	The clay or limestone soils of the Médoc vineyard are covered by a layer of small stones and pebbles which absorb heat during the day and restore it at night, ensuring that the grapes ripen evenly. Baron Philippe de Rothschild has selected parcels in terroirs where relatively high temperatures favour the expression of ripe fruit and yield beautifully mature Cabernets.
Vinification:	Throughout the vine growth cycle, Baron Philippe de Rothschild's winemakers keep a close eye on the selected parcels and advise our partner-winegrowers on vineyard practices in accordance with the quality requirements for Mouton Cadet. As harvest time approaches, the winemakers taste the grapes parcel by parcel in order to determine the optimum date for picking. The grapes from each parcel are then vinified separately. A vinification protocol is specifically tailored to each vat in or
