Vineyard:	LABYRINTH The limited edition Amarone Famiglia Pasqua 2013 with 7000 numbered bottles was designed by Giorgia Fincato, a young and eclectic Veneto artist and a genius at understanding the essence of the simplest things and of the universal in the particular. Pasqua has acknowledged, in its talent, vision and way of representing reality, a strong affinity with its own history
Vinification:	The grapes are hand-picked in mid-September and laid out to dry in the drying loft for approximately three months, where the grapes lose around 25-30% of their weight with the resulting concentration of the substances present. After pressing, alcoholic fermentation in steel vats begins, for around 25-30 days at a controlled temperature and continuous punching down is carried out to encourage extraction of colour and tannin. When finished, the wine is transferred to French oak barrels where the
