Vineyard:	Selected vineyards in the Rioja Alta and Rioja Alavesa subzones with an average age of more than 25 years. 92% Tempranillo and 8% Mazuelo.
Vinification:	Fermented in stainless steel tanks, with temperature control to ensure that it doesn't go over 28C to avoid losing the aromas from the grape. Three weeks maceration with frequent pumping-over to ensure a good colour extraction. 18 months in hybrid barrels of French and American oak. Bodegas LAN is a pioneer in the use of hybrid barrels that combine American oak staves - giving vanilla elegance - and French oak bases, which provide touches of spice. Remained in bottle a further 20 months.
Appearance:	Bright, ripe cherry red.
Bouquet:	Intense and complex in aromas. Aromas of ripe red fruit, enveloped in white flowers, almond blossom and broom. Touches of cinnamon and resinous notes.
Palate:	Velvety on the attack, smooth and delicate. It is elegant, balanced and harmonious on the palate. A long finish, leaving a pleasant aftertaste that encourages you to take another sip.
