Vineyard:

The 50-year-old Tawny that makes up Taylors Golden Age is sourced from the eastern reaches of the Douro Valley. The Douro Valley is renowned for hosting some of the finest vineyard estates, serving as the traditional source for the production of the most long-lasting wines.

Vinification:

Taylors Golden Age is a special collectors edition port crafted by blending rare wood-aged ports that have matured for an impressive five decades in oak casks. This unique blend is released in very limited quantities, making it a coveted collector's item. Aged in seasoned oak casks prior to blending.

Appearance:

The wine exhibits a chestnut and copper-colored core with a light golden rim.

Bouquet:

The primary aromas are elegant, rich, and very delicate. It opens with inviting notes of rum and raisin, accompanied by subtle hints of clove, nutmeg, and a touch of cracked black pepper. Delicate fruit notes of prunes, quince, and apricot dance on the palate. The zest of lemon and orange adds a refreshing acidity, beautifully balancing the richness of the wine.

Palate:

On the palate, the wine unfolds with distinct notes of scorched pineapple, passion fruit, and lychee. These fruity elements are beautifully balanced by the presence of toasted coconut, almonds, and butterscotch. The texture and weight of the wine create a luxurious experience, wrapping the palate in richness. The finish is bright, fresh, and poised, leaving a lasting impression.
