Vineyard:	The vineyards that produce our Alpha Carmenère are located in two very important zones of the Colchagua Valley-Apalta and Marchigüe.
Appearance:	Deep ruby-red with an eye-catching, violet hue.
Bouquet:	On the nose it's complex and elegant. Pronounced, delicious aromas of ripe red and black fruit melt into inviting chocolate, mocha and brioche. The nose is well-balanced, with a little spice in the background. The French oak lends some toasted notes that complement the aromatic prole, while adding a slight sensation of sweetness.
Palate:	On the palate, it shows itself to be a wine of great Carmenère character and typicity, with rich acidity that is well balanced with the generous body. The tannins are velvety and give way to a long memorable finish.
