Vineyard:	Amaro Montenegros tale began over 130 years ago with a rather unusual twist. Stanislao Cobianchi was a noble citizen of Bologna, destined for an ecclesial career; when one day, he went against his parents wishes and left home in the spirit of adventure.
Vinification:	He traveled with unashamed irreverence, learning, exploring and most importantly, tasting all that the world had to offer. His journey took him to the Balkans, where he experienced a vibrant melting pot of cultures and ideas. He returned to his hometown filled with inspiration, opening a distillery and pioneering an amaro that perfectly balances bitter and sweet flavors. Making a grand gesture, Stanislao dedicated the name to Princess Elena of Montenegro.
Appearance:	Tawny with golden highlights.
Bouquet:	Fresh fruit mixes with bitter-sweet spices.
Palate:	Starting off with a rich caramel sweetness, before developing a full-bodied bitter spice finish.
