| Vineyard: | The Carmenerre vineyards that produce the grapes for our Limited Selection wines are located in the Apalta and Marchigüe sectors of the Colchagua Valley. Apalta is very heterogeneous, with areas that are very much influenced by the river as well as material that breaks off from high above in the mountains. The soils tend to be deep on the plain and thinner at the foot of the mountain and higher areas. |
| Appearance: | Bright purplish-ruby red in color |
| Bouquet: | aromas of red and blue berries over a backdrop of dried plums. Spicy and complex, with enveloping aromas that recall nutmeg and cinnamon. A touch of fresh tobacco melds with aromas of nuts and pastry. A clear touch of French oak is evident with aromas of cocoa and fresh-ground coffee. |
| Palate: | The palate is voluptuous and well balanced with round tannins, and the finish is elegant and persistent with a subtle and pleasing sweet sensation. |
