

DALMORE

King Alexander III Whisky 700ml

Category: SPIRIT
Style: WHISKY
Variety: MALTS
Region: HIGHLAND
Volume: 700ml
Vineyard:

In 1263, Colin of Kintail, Chief of the Clan Mackenzie, took a bold decision to stand up and be counted, and felled a charging stag which attacked King Alexander III of Scotland. In return for saving his life, the grateful King gifted the 12-pointed Royal Stag emblem to the Mackenzie Clan as a reward. When descendants of the Mackenzie Clan took over the ownership of The Dalmore distillery in 1867, they continued to honour this brave act and proudly put the 12-pointed Royal Stag on the bottle.

Vinification:

In 1263, Colin of Kintail, Chief of the Clan Mackenzie, took a bold decision to stand up and be counted, and felled a charging stag which attacked King Alexander III of Scotland. In return for saving his life, the grateful King gifted the 12-pointed Royal Stag emblem to the Mackenzie Clan as a reward. When descendants of the Mackenzie Clan took over the ownership of The Dalmore distillery in 1867, they continued to honour this brave act and proudly put the 12-pointed Royal Stag on the bottle.

Appearance:

This Single Malt displays a rich amber, displaying the character of all six varieties of casks in which it was matured.

Bouquet:

Aromas of red berry fruits, fresh flowers and passion fruit.

Palate:

Citrus zest, vanilla pod and creme caramel before finishing with sweet cinnamon and nutmeg.

Technical Analysis:

Alcohol: 40.00%

Packaging: 1 x 700ml

Hancocks Product: 94274